

Terms and Conditions for the Passenger Service Facilities Charge

(Objective)

Article 1

Passengers of Tokyo International Airport managed by Tokyo International Air Terminal Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) shall pay the passenger service facilities charge (hereinafter referred to as the “Fee”), which will be appropriated for the expenses required to ensure the availability of the passenger service facilities, which term herein shall mean the lobby, waiting room, and other areas open to passengers in the passenger terminal building, baggage handling facilities, fixed gate, automatic broadcast facilities, security facilities, and the flight information facilities. The objective of these Terms and Conditions is to set forth the necessary conditions for payment of the Charge.

(Charge)

Article 2

1. All passengers (hereinafter referred to as “Passengers”) departing Tokyo International Airport with a ticket shall pay the Charge added to the airfare on the ticket issued through an air carrier (hereinafter referred to as the “Airline”) at the time of payment of the airfare. Passengers without tickets (including passengers using a private plane) and Passengers who failed to pay the Charge for any reason when the ticket was issued shall pay the Charge by another method through the Airline.
2. The Charge shall be as quoted below. For the purpose of the Charge below, an adult shall be defined as person 12 years old or older and a child shall be defined as person two years old or older and under the age of 12, provided that a child using an adult-fare ticket shall be considered an adult. No Charge shall be required from the Passenger under two, provided that the Passenger under two who uses a child-fare ticket shall be considered a child.

(1) Charge, including national and local consumption taxes

- (i) “Departing passenger” shall be defined herein as Passengers departing Tokyo International Airport after clearing immigration, except Passenger in transit.
Adult 2,950 yen per person
Child 1,470 yen per person
- (ii) “Passenger in transit” shall be defined herein as Passengers who arrived at Tokyo International Airport and depart from Tokyo International Airport on a single ticket within 24 hours for a destination other than the immediate location before arriving at the Airport, regardless of their entry to Japan. Transfer time shall be calculated as follows: “STA (scheduled time of arrival in JST approved by Minister of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism) of an arrival flight of the passenger” – “STD (scheduled time of departure in JST approved by Minister of Land, Infrastructure, Transport and Tourism) of a departing flight of the passenger”

Adult 1,470 yen per person

Child 730 yen per person

(Exemptions)

Article 3

Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding article, the Company shall exempt a Passenger from the Charge if such Passenger falls under any of the conditions set forth in the Exhibit subject to notification by the Airline to the Company.

(Refund)

Article 4

The Charge may be refunded to the Passenger who paid the Charge but cancels departure from Tokyo International Airport or if deemed necessary by the Company through the Airline at the time of refund of the ticket that would have been used by the Passenger or by another method.

(Amendment of Terms and Conditions)

Article 5

The Company may amend these Terms and Conditions without a prior notice. Passengers using Tokyo International Airport after the amendment shall be deemed to have agreed to the amended Terms and Conditions and shall be governed by the same.

Supplementary Provisions

1. These Terms and Conditions shall come into effect as of March 27, 2022.
2. These Terms and Conditions shall apply to all Passengers using Tokyo International Airport as of March 27, 2022.

(Exhibit)

Passengers who fall under any of the conditions below shall be exempted from the Charge.

- (1) Foreign distinguished guest who shall be treated as or in the same manner as a state public guest by a decision of the cabinet (hereinafter referred to as the “State and Public Guest”).
- (2) Attendants of the State and Public Guest who are permitted to pass customs by proxy or on board.
- (3) A passenger who is deported in accordance with the Immigration Control and Refugee Status Law (hereinafter referred to as the “Law”) from Japan to another country at national expense.
- (4) A passenger who is refused entry by law and wherein a certificate to that effect is issued by the immigration examiner and is presented by the Airline.
- (5) A passenger on an aircraft that made an emergency landing at Tokyo International Airport for reasons beyond the control of the Passenger or a plane that alternatively landed at Tokyo International Airport.
- (6) A passenger on a plane that was ordered to land at Tokyo International Airport as needed for air traffic control or other administrative purposes.
- (7) A passenger on a plane that departed from Tokyo International Airport and, without landing at another airport for reasons beyond the control of the passenger, landed at Tokyo International Airport.
- (8) A passenger who paid the Charge on a plane that departed Tokyo International Airport on or after the next day due to failure of the airframe or devices, acute disease of a passenger, hijack, bad weather or runway closure, or as needed for air traffic control or other administrative purposes.
- (9) A passenger in transit who will arrive at or depart Tokyo International Airport using a plane engaged in international flight between Tokyo International Airport and an airport within Japan other than Tokyo International Airport.
- (10) Other passengers from whom the Company specifically decides not to collect the Charge.